Hamden, CT 06514

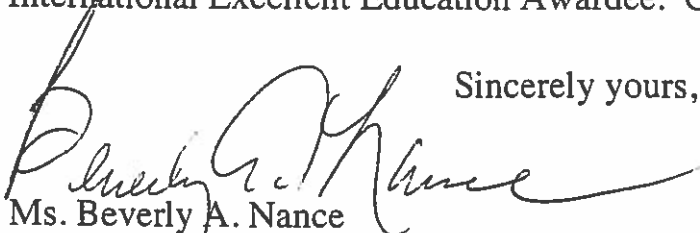

Dear Ms. Boyd, International Excellence Education Awardee

It is the distinct honor of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, to award you the prestigious International Excellence Education Award at their Awards Luncheon on Monday, October 13, 2014, at One UN New York Millennium Hotel, on 44th Street, near 1st Avenue, New York.

Ms. Boyd, with more than fifty years of service as a supervisor and teacher, you excelled in your avocation as one who is efficient, dedicated and committed to work ethics. In every endeavor you undertook, you achieved success. Your organization and smooth running of your administrator's domain created effective ways of maximizing the productivity of your staff and the students. In the roles that you held, you established a high level of trust and diplomacy. Your commitment to high standards enabled you to rise to the challenge and requirements of your focus and determination as a superior educator.

The International Affairs Division (IAD) of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Association is proud to select you as their International Excellent Education Awardee. Congratulations!

Sincerely yours,

Ms. Beverly A. Nance
United Nations Representative

Dr. Beryl Dorsett
International Governor
